CHRISTMAS TOY DROP

This year we are again partnering with The Lynch who Stole Christmas from the GrYnch program, the wonderful organization which makes sure that donated toys get to needy children in our community for Christmas.

There will be a sign at both St. Ann Church and Assumption Church directing where to place the toys you bring to donate from Sunday, November 30 through Sunday, December 14.

Please purchase toys, games, crafts or sports equipment (no clothing) for ages 6-17.

Place the unwrapped gift in the designated area at each Church by December 14 OR bring the gift to the Parish "Prelude to Christmas" Concert on December 14 OR drop the gift off at the Parish Office by December 12.

Thank you for your generosity to our needy children!

From the Desk of Deacon Rich Roenbeck, Pastoral Associate

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

When I was in seminary, we often heard a buzzword: formation. Formation is very important. It matters for all of us as we face spiritual battles, but even more so for priests, who lead others toward Jesus. The prophet Isaiah says, "But now, Oh Lord, you are our Father, we are the clay, you are the potter; we are all the work of your hand" (Isaiah 64:8). My hope with this message is that we understand and accept our role as clay in God's hands. Without a doubt, as we celebrate the lives of the saints, God has shaped them into incredible people.

After a while, the word formation can sometimes feel like just another word. Some might wonder what I mean by this. It can sometimes resemble the phrase "Any Given Sunday" in an NFL locker room or "run it like a machine" when discussing how to lead a group toward a common goal. No matter what "buzzword" we use, the question is whether we understand and accept the spiritual nature of our lives. Even if we believe that God does not exist—which is false—our actions still shape who we become. We are clay in the potter's hands.

We, as Catholics, must understand the importance of spiritual formation. We need to accept our roles as clay in God's hands. The elite athlete playing in the NFL bears a significant cross to achieve what might seem impossible. Legend has it that one of the greatest wide receivers in the NFL, Jerry Rice, would spend hours on the football field the day after a game, running routes. Instead of using his free time to rest, like his teammates, he would secretly practice the routes he was responsible for. Jerry knew that to become the top wide receiver in the NFL he aspired to be, he would have to carry a heavy cross. If the average wide receiver spent five hours in practice, he would spend six.

No analogy is perfect; however, this can help us understand the spiritual formation God wants us to undergo. God does not intend to limit our freedom when we accept that we are clay in the potter's hands; He wants us to feel genuine love. We accept our cross because we trust that God has a great plan for us that will shape us into incredible people.

What if our crosses are too heavy? The cross might be too burdensome, or it might be a burden we never wanted to bear, and it was unfair that we carried it. What is important to remember is that Jesus never promised the crosses we carry would be ones we seek or that we would feel good about accepting. Additionally, what happens to us is essential, but what happens within us is also crucial. We cannot give in to bitterness, cynicism, negativity, hatred of human nature, creation, or God.

We face some significant crosses in today's world, both personally and socially. Sometimes, it's sad to watch the news or browse the Internet. We can only imagine the pain people feel carrying these burdens. For example, losing a child or spouse, growing up without a strong family bond, natural disasters, or the suffering and persecution of people because of their religious beliefs.

Without a doubt, we should protect ourselves from these horrific forms of suffering. However, if there's nothing else we can do to prevent these things from happening to us, why not turn to God for understanding? Why not be shaped by the potter? Many stories tell of God writing straight with crooked lines, especially in the lives of the saints. Jesus has promised to always be present with us as we carry our cross. Equally important, Jesus promises us something through the cross—that is, the Resurrection. The priceless vase is shaped by the potter only after being placed in the kiln. Our time in the kiln brings us into union with God. He carries our cross with us, and we walk with Him into our resurrection.

St. Ann Church Refurbishment Project - PHASE II

Generous donors are needed to quickly raise $250,000 to help cover the cost of the removal and replacement of the carpeting in the sanctuary/altar area and main body of St. Ann Church. The existing carpeting was installed in 1987 and the seaside climate and ocean air has taken its toll. The goal is to complete the work by the beginning of Lent.

This project has been authorized by the Diocese as Phase II of work urgently needed at St. Ann Church. Phase I has been completed, including repair and improvements to the handicap entrance and installation of new flooring in the vestibule, sacristy, and old chapel.

If you can help out with a generous donation, Fr. Mazz asks that you call the Parish Office to arrange to speak with him personally. Please feel free to call me, as well, if you have questions. Please also be sure to clearly indicate "Phase II" on your check or electronic payment and bring or send your check directly to the Parish Office.

Gratefully,
Kevin Yecco, Parish Business Administrator

Reflections on the Readings

READING I: Isaiah 11:1-10 — The wolf shall be a guest of the lamb.

♦ This reading describes the expected Emmanuel God with us. The reign of Emmanuel will be harmonious, just, and peace-filled. The one who comes will be a person of justice and wisdom. The characteristics or qualities of Emmanuel are what Christians today identify as the Gifts of the Holy Spirit.

READING II: Romans 15:4-9 — Accept one another, as Christ accepted you.

♦ In this passage from the Letter to the Romans, Paul urges the strong to carry the burdens of the weak, to follow the example of Christ, who became the servant of all. Followers of Christ ought to build the community and its members up rather than tear it down. Paul calls for unity and acceptance, between the Gentile Christians who were the majority and the Jewish-Christian minority.

GOSPEL: Matthew 3:1-12 — Reform your lives.

♦ In the Gospel of Matthew, John the Baptist is introduced preaching a message of conversion: "Reform your lives! The reign of God is at hand. His preaching demanded a radical conversion of the whole person to God. John baptized the people in the River Jordan as a symbolic washing that signified their repentance, but this is a Jewish, not a Christian baptism. On this Second Sunday in Advent, this reading puts our focus on preparation for Christ's coming.

Saint of the Week

St. Juan Diego
1474 - 1548

Good things happen to those who go to daily Mass. A very good thing happened to St. Juan Diego on his long trek to daily Mass, something so extraordinary that it permanently altered a continent. Juan Diego Cuauhtlatoatzin (the "Talking Eagle") was born near present-day Mexico City. At the age of 50, Juan was baptized by a Franciscan missionary priest. Juan piously practiced his faith.

On December 9, 1531, Juan was walking to daily Mass and crossing over a small hill called Tupeyac. A mysterious woman appeared to him speaking the local language. The woman identified herself as the "Ever-Virgin Holy Mary, Mother of the true God" and asked Juan to approach the local Bishop to convey her request that a shrine be built in her honor on that very hill. In obedience and humility, Juan approached the Bishop who was solicitous but cautious. The Bishop requested a sign to buttress Juan's credibility and the woman's identity.

On December 12, Juan presented the Bishop with delicate flowers, carefully cradled in his poncho, which Mary had directed him to collect. When Juan unfurled his poncho, the Bishop and everyone else present saw what can be seen today in the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe built on Tepeyac Hill in Mexico City — a beautiful image of a young, pregnant Mary of Tepeyac emblazoned, in full color, on Juan's coarse poncho. The Basilica is the most visited Marian shrine in the world.

After the events of 1531, Juan Diego, whose wife had died before these events, spent the rest of his days living the life of a hermit near the initial chapel on Tepeyac which housed the miraculous image. Juan likely welcomed the waves of pilgrims who visited the first primitive shrine to pay homage to Our Lady of Guadalupe. We can be sure Mary watched over him during that time and at the hour of his death since she had assured him of her love, compassion, help and protection, when she appeared to him, saying: "Am I not here, who is your Mother? Are you not under my shadow and protection?"

Pope John Paul II canonized Juan Diego on July 31, 2002 in Mexico City, Mexico. St. Juan Diego's feast day is celebrated on December 9. The feast day of Our Lady of Guadalupe, December 12, is a Holy Day of Obligation and national holiday in Mexico.

All who are members of the Mystical Body of Christ "are united with their divine Head in the Eucharistic sacrifice, and with him, together with the angels and archangels, they sing immortal praise to God and give all honor and glory to the Father Almighty." "May it thus come about that the Christian people begin even on this earth to sing that song of praise it will sing forever in heaven."

POPE PIUS XII, MEDIATOR DEI (1947 ENCYCLICAL)

All too often we consider peace a "negative" word, indicative only of the absence of war and conflict, since opposition is a perennial part of human nature, frequently leading us to live in a constant "state of conflict" at home, at work and in society. Peace then appears simply as a respite, a pause between one dispute and another, given that, no matter how hard we try, tensions will always be present, a little like embers burning beneath the ashes, ready to ignite at any moment.

From a Christian perspective, peace is first and foremost a gift. It is the first gift of Christ: "My peace I give to you" (John 14:27). Yet it is an active and demanding gift. It engages and challenges each of us, regardless of our cultural background or religious affiliation, demanding first of all that we work on ourselves. Peace is built in the heart and from the heart, by eliminating pride and vindictiveness and carefully choosing our words. For words, too, not only weapons, can wound and even kill. This effort, in which all of us are called to take part, can begin to eliminate the root causes of all conflicts and every destructive urge for conquest. It demands a genuine willingness to engage in dialogue, inspired by the desire to communicate rather than clash. – POPE LEO XIV

WALKING WITH PURPOSE

A Catholic Women's Bible Study

This year we are doing two books. The cost of the books together is $50.00. Each book is 9 weeks and we will have other presentations through this season. We will finish by the first week in May. We meet on Wednesdays. You will be given a calendar for the year!

Book One: "Beholding His Glory" Salvation History 1
This book will illustrate how Old Testament Scripture leads us directly to our Redeemer, Jesus Christ. God had a plan for His Son, and He has a plan for your life, too. Page after page, God's awe-inspiring majesty is a treasure to behold.

Book Two: "Beholding Your King" Salvation History 2
If our self-centered culture sometimes leaves you feeling empty and dissatisfied, a fuller view of God and His glory is your spiritual antidote. As the sequel to Beholding His Glory, the journey through salvation history continues with a study of King David, selected Psalms, the temple, and several Old Testament Prophets.

Wildwood Catholic Academy

PreK to 12th Grade 609-522-7257

Wildwood Catholic Academy is Pleased to Announce the Sister St. Gervase 2025-2026 School Year Scholarship Recipients

Through the generosity of our former, long-time, esteemed English teacher, William (Bill) Waters, two students have been granted a scholarship in honor of Sister St. Gervase, SSJ, which has assisted them in attending Wildwood Catholic Academy.

The Sisters of St. Joseph of Philadelphia is the religious order of sisters that, for many decades, was the heart and soul of Wildwood Catholic. One of the many marvelous nuns who taught at Wildwood Catholic was Sister St. Gervase, who was assigned to Wildwood Catholic from September 1978 until June 1983. Sadly, she died on September 17, 2020. Because of Covid-19, Sister's obituary was not widely published and her funeral was private. Below is the obituary printed several months after her passing in the Order's newsletter:

> Sister St. Gervase Glackin went home to God on September 17, 2020, two weeks after her 91st birthday. A resident of St. Joseph Villa since 2014, Sister's liturgy and funeral followed at the Villa on September 22.
>
> The second oldest of seven children, Mary Angela, lost her father when she was just eight years old. Her mother, Mary Glackin, wanted a good education for the young children and enrolled six of the children in St. Joseph Academy in McSherrytown, PA, a boarding school owned by the Sisters of St. Joseph. The youngest Glackin child, Charles, remains.
>
> Strongly influenced by the spirit and dedication of the Sisters at the Academy, young Mary Angela entered the Novitiate in September 1946. Her first ministry, teaching elementary school children in various grades, schools and dioceses, lasted for twenty years. Subsequent ministry in secondary education allowed her to share her love for reading and writing and to introduce them to authors, especially English writers. She often accompanied groups of students to London where they, too, enjoyed all things British.
>
> Summers also allowed Sister to pursue opportunities for offering volunteer services in New York and even in California, in various capacities.
>
> Her ministry, later on, included teaching college students, including stints at Drexel and Villanova Universities and Community College of Philadelphia. In 2002, Sister St. Gervase became coordinator of Outreach at St. John Church in Philadelphia before accepting an invitation to assist students with reading and writing skills in the English department at Neumann-Goretti High School.
> After a brief time volunteering at Mount Saint Joseph Convent, Sister St. Gervase took up residence at the Villa, often sharing readings of published poets. She enjoyed writing her own poems for special occasions and shared them as well. Truly a unique and creative spirit, Sister St. Gervase will be fondly remembered.

Sister St. Gervase left a lasting impression on many of the over 600 Wildwood Catholic students she encountered during her five academic years spent laboring at the school. She was an inspired teacher of British literature and writing skills and started Wildwood Catholic's very first AP course (AP English Literature and Composition). She held "high tea" for her students at the convent, donned special attire to confer knighthood on famous British writers from the past, and took students and some parents on literary trips to England. To quote one of her English department colleagues, "Her life was marked by exuberance in the classroom and a passion for service in the outside world."

To honor the memory of Sister St. Gervase, the following AP English Language and Composition students have been awarded a scholarship:

Cipriano Cruz Perez and Angelina Richards

Our thanks to Mr. Waters for sponsoring this generous scholarship in memory of Sister St. Gervase. May Sister's love of all things "English" and her passion for service be an inspiration to our students.
