The Epiphany of the Lord

Letter From Rev. Joseph Wallace, Pastor

Dear Parishioner,

This weekend we celebrate the feast that separates us from our Jewish forbearers and all other religions. In the fullness of time, as foretold by the Prophets, God Himself would come to the rescue of humanity, incarnate as Jesus Christ. In Him, humanity, fallen by sin, is restored to a right relationship with the Divine. Jesus, the realization of the hope of Israel for salvation is revealed to the Gentile nations, represented by the three Magi, as the Savior of the world! Jesus Christ is as St. Luke explains, “a light for revelation to the Gentiles and the glory of your people Israel!”

I hope you all enjoyed a wonderful Christmas with your family and friends. I would like to thank all of you for your generosity in your Christmas donations and flower contributions. The churches looked beautiful because of the hard work of our Art and Environment Ministry headed by Jude Skocki Kelly. The music at our celebrations were magnificent! Thank you Jonathan Delgado and our wonderful choirs! Thank you liturgical ministers, sacristans, ushers, servers, Eucharistic ministers, lectors and all those who in any way enhance our worship experience! We are so blessed to have so many good and generous people who give of their time, talent and treasure to our beloved parish in so many ways. To them all thank you and may the Lord bless you for your goodness.

The joy of the Christmas season was dampened a bit by the illness of our parish secretary Pat Manning and the sudden death of her husband John. I ask that you keep Pat and her family in your prayers during this difficult time for them. I ask that you be patient as the parish staff temporarily fills in the duties of parish secretary.

As we begin this New Year the parish staff that serves you is in the planning stages of setting the foundation for a realignment of ministerial oversight, in order to serve the spiritual needs of our entire parish family. We are seeking to breathe new life into our religious education, adult education, RCIA, and all ministerial outreach here at Notre Dame de la Mer Parish. As this process of renewal unfolds, I will share with you our results and plans. Also beginning in March, which is right around the corner, the diocese and parish will begin a capital campaign, “Catholic Strong” that will help to reach some of the goals we have as a parish to update, renew and expand our ministerial outreach to all segments and age groups in our parish. Stay tuned for further details!

I’m happy to congratulate Mr. Kevin Quinn, our parish administrator, who has been personally appointed to the newly formed Diocesan Pastoral Council by Bishop Sullivan. Kevin, who is beginning his last semester at Villanova University toward his Masters in Church Administration, was chosen by Bishop Sullivan for this important diocesan position because of his pastoral and administrative acumen and dedication. Kevin also serves on another diocesan steering committee charged with creating a diocesan-wide Men’s Spirituality Conference. It is an honor for both Kevin and our parish!

I pray for good health, spiritual growth, happiness and all blessings upon you and your families in this New Year!

Fr. Wallace

Stewardship

Epiphany of the Lord-

Stewardship Prayer

"..they fell down and worshipped him. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh..." - MATTHEW 2:11

Notice the order of events in the Magi's visit. First, they knelt before Jesus and prayed to Him. Then they presented Him with their gifts. We, too, as Christian Stewards must take time to pray before we present our gifts to the Lord. We never know what God may be asking us to share!

Parish Giving is a safe, secure, and easy way to make On-line parish and church related donations and payments. It is convenient and easy and offers you a variety of options. Please give it a try by going to our parish webpage www.notredamedelamer.org and clicking on the Parish Giving button.

The House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal seeks to raise funds to provide care, respect, justice, peace and dignity for every soul in the Diocese of Camden. We ask that you prayerfully consider how this annual program provides solace, support and grace to thousands of your brothers and sisters in Christ and give, generously, in support of the 2017 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal. Your support of the 2017 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal ensures the vitality of essential Diocesan ministries and programs that sustain the healing, teaching and redemptive presence of Jesus Christ through the Diocese of Camden.

Our parish goal is $148,799.00 of which we have received $64,385.00.

It is important for the expectant parents/guardians to arrange to attend a session 5 months before the birth and Baptism of the child. Contact the parish offices for more information. The next class is scheduled for Saturday, January 20, 2018 from 9:30 to 11:00 AM.

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

There will be no Holy Hour held during the month of January

Our next holy hour will be Monday, February 19, 2017 (the third Monday of the month), at 1:30 PM, at St. Ann Chapel, located near the parking lot of the Church (toward the ocean) at Atlantic & Glenwood Avenues, Wildwood, we will hold a Holy Hour of inter-
