Steward Uniqueness

"A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit." - LUKE 6:43

Are you using your gifts in the way God intended? Have you asked God how He would like you to use them? Do you compare yourself to others and complain about what you don't have instead of being thankful for what you do have? God gives each of us unique gifts and a unique plan. Listen to how God has called you to Stewardship to use your gifts, to bear good fruit, for the glory of His name.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive.

Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through items like stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts.

Dear Parishioner,

In today's Gospel Jesus challenges us to examine whether we, as Christian parents, teachers, pastors, leaders, guides, spiritual heads and in whatever role, are first of all motivated and influenced by His teachings before guiding and teaching others. If we ourselves do not choose Jesus' way of life and are not convinced of it, showing His way to others will be like a blind person leading the way for other blind people and falling into a pit. Therefore, to lead others in the faith requires that we ourselves must do the basics well in the first place.

Jesus teaches us that before judging others, we should look first in the mirror to see how we ourselves appear. When and if we point out other peoples' faults, when we have faults of our own or ignore our own faults, Jesus calls us "hypocrites". We are known by our deeds. When we do good deeds, we show others that we have the good, loving heart of a disciple. We must let our love for God and others be without any hypocrisy. Let us prove by our words and our lives that we are genuine believers in Jesus Christ.

Today the last Sunday before the Liturgical Season of Lent begins. We will tuck away our "alleluias" until the great feast of Easter. Based on the Hebrew word, hallelujah, meaning "Praise the Lord" alleluia is a word of great praise to God in the life. Because of the penitential character of the season of Lent, singing or saying the word "alleluia" has been suspended during Lent's forty days. This period of individual and congregational reflection on the quality of our baptismal faith and life suggests that the joyful nature of alleluia is more appropriately reserved for our Easter celebrations when it is given full and jubilant voice. The Gospel Acclamation is now replaced with the words "Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless Glory! The Gloria (Glory to God) is also suspended until we gather on the beginning of the Triduum as we celebrate the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday.

This Wednesday is Ash Wednesday which will officially mark the beginning of our Lenten journey. The purpose of Lent is to prepare us for the three most sacred days of the Church year: Holy Thursday with the Lord's Supper, Good Friday with the Lord's Passion and Holy Saturday with the Lord's triumph, the Eater Vigil. Next week will begin the great countdown to this Sacred Triduum (Three Days) which Christ calls each one of us as a parish family to celebrate in.

Let us continue our journey towards being the good disciples of Jesus Christ, both in word and deed.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Delgado

Readings of the Week

Reading I : Sirach 27:4-7

Praise no one before he speaks.

- One's faults show when we are shaken.
- Tribulation is the test of the just.
- One's speech discloses the bent of one's heart.

Reading II : 1 Corinthians 15:54-58

God gives us victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

- Death will never be victorious.
- God gave us victory over sin and death through Jesus Christ.
- Be devoted to the work of the Lord.

Gospel : Luke 6:39-45

From the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks.

- Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but not the wooden beam in your own eye?
- A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor a rotten tree bear good fruit.
- Every tree is known by its own fruit. What fruit do I bear?

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel Reading from Luke

Step One: Listen to the Word

Which line in this reading caught your ear? What sense do you get about God as you listen to this Word proclaimed today?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: Jesus teaches us to do good. What did you do this past week that was really good, kind or loving?

Question for Youth: Jesus says that our words reveal what is in our hearts. How do your words and actions reveal what is truly in your heart?

Question for Adults: We humans are vulnerable to sin. But we see the sins of others more easily than we recognize our own sins. Why does Jesus warn us not to judge others?

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime . Please call the office at 609.522.2709 .

Sanctuary Lamp: The Sanctuary Lamp will burn the week of March 2 - March 8 in loving memory of:

BEGINS THIS SUNDAY...March 2!!! 40 Hours of Continuous Adoration

Notre Dame de la Mer invites each of you to participate in The Parish's 4th annual 40 continuous Hours of Adoration Devotion. This is a joyful and spiritual start to the 2025 Lenten season. During the 40 Hours we ask for commitments from those Adoring the Most Blessed Sacrament, who will be Guarding Him, that He be not alone. This is a wonderful way to start your Lenten season by giving up One-hour commitment. This is your Lenten season sacrifice. This is the source and summit of our Faith. To be in the presence of the King of the Universe and the Eucharist is the King!

For us to be successful we need two people per hour, from Sunday March 2nd at the 3PM, with the Exposition and Chaplet of Divine Mercy, through Tuesday March 4th at 1PM, concluding with Benediction and Mass. Followed with coffee and donuts in Kelly Hall.

Sign-up sheets, by hour, can be found in Kelly Hall, Assumption Church, and the Lobby at Saint Ann Church. Our success and continuation of 40 Hours Devotion is up to you.

Saint of the Week:

Martin de Porres, Religious (1579-1639)

Martin was the illegitimate son of a Spanish knight and a freed Panamanian slave. Born and raised in Lima, Peru, he was part of the poorest and lowest level of society. As a young man, Martin applied to the Dominicans to be a "lay-helper" because he didn't himself feel worthy to be a religious brother. He often spent his nights in prayer, while his days were filled with caring for the sick and the poor. He founded an orphanage and looked after the slaves brought from Africa. After nine years, his example of prayer and penance, charity and humility, led his religious community to ask Martin to make a full religious profession.

All of us are children of God and all of us deserve justice in our dealings with others. Martin cared not whether those he helped were slaves or free men, rich or poor. If they needed his help, he was available to them. We should do no less.

Martin's message today: All of us are children of God and all of us deserve justice in our dealings with others. Martin cared not whether those he helped were slaves or free men, rich or poor. If they needed his help, he was available to them. We should do no less.
