Stewardship

March 28, 2021 Stewards Help Others
Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

"Pilate again said to them, 'Then what shall I do with the man whom you call the King of the Jews?' And they cried out again, 'Crucify him.'" – MARK 15:12-13

Jesus told us "whatever you do for the least of my brothers, you do for me." Every day we are presented opportunities to help someone. Every day we have the opportunity to see the face of Jesus in others and be the face of Jesus to others. Every day we pass by someone in need. Pray for the strength and courage to live Stewardship by answering someone's prayer.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Your support of the 2021
House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal ensures the vitality of essential Diocesan ministries and programs that sustain the healing, teaching and redemptive Presence of Jesus Christ throughout Southern New Jersey.

Dear Friends,

Happy Palm Sunday!!

As we continue to navigate through our daily lives during Covid-19 it does not go lost on me that we just recently passed the one year anniversary of the week when everything in our world changed. During that very fluid week the news, which was hard to comprehend at the time, was becoming more and more bleak, by the day. And finally, on March 21, 2020 we received info that we were headed toward a total shutdown of all parish operations, including masses, ministries, schools, and all offices. Within days we soon faced fears that seemed straight out of a sci-fi movie as we went into lockdown and our lives were completely turned upside down.

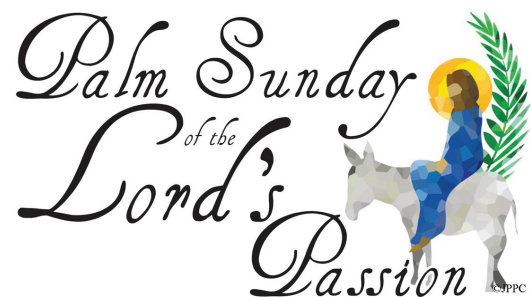

Our church buildings had to close their physical doors in order to respond to COVID-19 in our community. As we begin the HOLIEST of weeks, and embark on the journey that Jesus took for us, it is important to remain mindful of what the Lord provided for our parish community during our very challenging journey during the past year. I hope that you can celebrate with us that the Lord:

- 1) Provided us the resources to adapt and create a digital space to continue to worship from our homes.
- 2) Produced individuals in our church family, both staff and volunteers, who were willing, able, and available to help lead us back to liturgy; first outside, and then, back into our beautiful buildings while keeping safety protocols as a priority.
- 3) Brought new volunteers to our team at a time when their gifts were greatly needed.
- 4) Added financial resource through continued generous giving and stewardship, as well as, additional opportunity that provided stability during such a time of upheaval and uncertainty.

It is certainly a time to rejoice as we begin to come out of the dark times we were faced with and approach the return of so much that we gave up this year. Though, we can certainly look forward to a symbolic resurrection of our own liberties let us not forget that Jesus gave so much up to be the Son of Man. At this point in our Lenten journey, we need to grasp that He gave up His life so that we might have life. That is what should be on our minds as we hear the Passion today and as we continue and complete our own preparation for Christ's resurrection on Easter.

Please pray for our leaders, our staff, and our ability to trust the future of our church family to God. We are HIS church!

Kevin

Sunday Readings

Reading I : Isaiah 50:4-7

He opens my ear that I may hear.

- The first reading from Isaiah is taken from the third "Song of the Suffering Servant."
- It shows us the disciple whose faithfulness is based on fidelity to God.
- Although the passage was originally written about someone else, when we read this passage we immediately think of Jesus.

Reading II: Philippians 2:6-11

He emptied himself, taking the form of a slave.

- The second reading from Paul's Letter to the Philippians is a quotation from an early Christian hymn that proclaims the meaning of Jesus' death and resurrection.
- Even though Jesus was God, he obediently accepted the humiliation of the cross, and God raised him in glory.
- Paul's challenge is to make Jesus' attitude our own.

Gospel: Mark 14:1-15:47

The passion of our Lord Jesus Christ.

- The Passion story from the Gospel according to Mark shows Jesus to us as the suffering servant portrayed in the prophecy of Isaiah.
- Mark places Jesus' suffering and death in the context of the Passover meal which draws on Jewish theology.
- In Mark's account of the Passion, Jesus is alone with no one to comfort him as he approaches the ultimate sacrifice.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Together with your family discuss the Lord's Passion and its meaning for us. Invite family members to share what part of the Passion story touches them most.
- As a family, plan how you will celebrate Passion/Palm Sunday and the Easter Triduum. Celebrate Christ who died and is now risen and living with us forever.
- Place blessed palm branches in significant places in your home to remind you that Jesus died and rose to new life for you.
- Have each family member write the message, "Jesus died and rose to new life for me", on a small sheet of paper. Invite each person to discuss what that message means to him or her.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director.
 Please call a funeral home of your choice.

How Do I Dispose of Old Palms?

According to the Code of Canon Law, blessed items are not to be discarded in a trash can, but treated with respect (cf. #1171). At Mass these palm branches were set apart by a blessing from the priest and made into a “sacramental,” an object that is meant to draw us closer to the celebration of the seven sacraments. Throwing them in the trash ignores their sacred purpose and treats them like any other object we no longer need.

Most sacramentals, like palm branches for example, can be burned or buried in order to properly dispose of them. This type of disposal honors their sacred purpose and returns them to the earth in a dignified way.

What is the significance of the Paschal Candle?

The Paschal candle has a beautiful significance to Christians, with its rich symbolism and origins in the early centuries of Christianity. Though use of the candle likely began with the practical purpose of providing light to see, even this purpose allowed the candle to symbolize Jesus as the Light overcoming darkness in the Resurrection. This is why the candle is lit at the beginning of the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday and carried in a procession through the church that is still in darkness.

The pillar—which is the candle itself—takes on new meaning when it burns with the blessed fire. It feeds the Church by passing on its light while yet sustaining itself.

There is additional symbolism in the components that make up the candle. The pure wax that makes up the candle represents Jesus' purity. The wick symbolizes Jesus' human nature, while the flame symbolizes his divine nature. The markings on the candle also carry special meaning. The cross represents Christ's great sacrifice; the five grains of incense that are inserted represent his five wounds; and the Greek letters Alpha and Omega represent Jesus as the beginning and end. Often, the candle is also inscribed with the current year, showing each church's continuing participation in the universal celebration.

Once the Easter season is over, the Paschal candle is moved to a place near the baptismal font. There, it can be lit for baptismal and funeral services as a powerful reminder of the Resurrection.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be determined at a later date

Jesús nos dijo "cualquier cosa que hagas por el más pequeño de mis hermanos, lo harás por mí" Todos los días se nos presentan oportunidades para ayudar a alguien. Cada día tenemos la oportunidad de ver el rostro de Jesús en otros y de ser el rostro de Jesús para otras personas. Cada día nos encontramos con alguien necesitado. Aquí tendremos espacio para nuestros avisos e información a cerca de la Comunidad Hispana en la diócesis, en la parroquia y en el barrio.

El Coronavirus nos ha desconectado "un poco" es por eso que les queremos informar sobre nuestros Servicios Espirituales para crecer en la FE.

¿Qué es el Misterio Pascual y cómo lo vivimos diariamente?

El misterio pascual de Cristo es la celebración de tres pasos o momentos importantes que se conmemoran en la Semana Santa:

LA PASIÓN, LA MUERTE Y LA RESURRECCIÓN DE CRISTO.

Jesús vivía este camino durante toda su vida, en Semana Santa se celebra este camino de Salvación. Nuestra fe está basada en este misterio, el sufrimiento, muerte y resurrección de Jesús. En la Misa después de la Consagración el Padre dice, "este es el Sacramento de nuestra fe" y decimos "Anunciamos tu MUERTE proclamamos tu RESURRECCION ven Señor Jesús." ¿Cómo anunciamos la Muerte de Jesús? Con esa frase nos identificamos con el sufrimiento de El. Dolor en la familia especialmente en las relaciones humanas, que sean entre esposos o padres con sus hijos, nos hacen agonizar y llorar. Es precisamente el momento de comunicarnos con Jesús (se llama oración) que nos entiende porque el pasó por lo mismo. El sufrimiento que experimentamos todos los días en una forma o otra es nuestro camino de Salvación. En momentos de sufrimiento y dolor levanta tu corazón a Jesús para que te acompañe en tu camino de la cruz como tú lo acompañaba en su camino durante la Cuaresma. Después de vivir en la oscuridad de las dificultades, si somos personas de fe, siempre viene la luz, hay que estar abiertos a la Resurrección.
