Stewardship

April 9 2023 – Grateful Stewards
Easter Sunday

“Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth.” COLOSSIANS 3:2

Do you put God first in all things? Possessions, money, power, ego can easily become gods to many of us. Do a quick check of what is important to you. Is God at the very top of the list? If not, your priorities need to be re-adjusted. Don't let earthly things become a god before God. This is also the first commandment – I am the Lord your God, you shall not have any strange gods before me.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Easter!

On behalf of our priests, deacons, and staff I want to wish you all a very joy-filled Easter day and Easter season!

At Easter, we celebrate Christ's resurrection from the dead, and that is the cause of our joy. This feast is also called the "Pasch" or "Pascha" from the Hebrew Passover. One of the titles for Christ is "Pascal Lamb" as well as the "Lamb of God". Jesus, as the sacrificial lamb gave himself up for our sins and died, but rose again on the third day! This is the most wonderful good news of our faith! It gives us a reason to have great hope, as well as to be so joyful as we are!

Our parish is so blessed to have so many people becoming baptized, making their first Holy Communion, Confirmation and Profession of Faith at the Easter Vigil, in fact, throughout the Easter season. We truly congratulate each of them, their sponsors, their family members, and we are very grateful to those who instructed them in the faith.

On another note, we continue to add new ministries like the Christ Life program. I highly encourage people to consider joining as it is a wonderful means to growing in your faith. The program will begin in the fall.

We are also going to have a young man, Kyle Palmieri, as a part-time youth minister for our parish and the school. He brings a lot of personal experience in youth, ministry and enthusiasm to help us to continue to develop our ministry to our young people.

Please pray for all of our ministers and volunteers, and for our parish to continue to be blessed by the Lord!

God bless you,

Fr.Mazz

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Acts 10:34a, 37-43

God raised him up on the third day.

- In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, Peter efficiently summarizes Jesus' life and death.
- Peter, whose denial of Jesus was heartrending, had now been given a new strength to tell the story of God's anointed one.
- The source of Peter's strength was his "witness"; he was one of the few who had been chosen "to eat and drink with Jesus after he rose from the dead". (Acts 10:41)

Reading II: Colossians 3:1-4

Set your heart on what pertains to higher realms.

- The two readings from the letter of Paul (we will use one or the other in our Liturgy of the Word) provide encouragement and insight to the newly baptized and to all Christians.
- The event of Baptism is a life-long journey that we renew every day.
- In both readings, Paul's point is clear: The Lamb of God has been sacrificed to give us fullness of life, and we must respond to that gift by the way we live our lives.

Gospel: John 20:1-9

Mary Magdalene came to the tomb.

- The Gospel reading is John's version of the disciples' discovery of the empty tomb.
- Central to the story is how the participants come to believe in the risen Lord.
- The disciples saw and believed, however the author calls attention to the "Beloved Disciple", who saw only the minimum yet believed.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Together as a family, make a large Easter banner. Invite family members to reflect on the following question: What does Jesus' Resurrection mean for you? After a few moments, have each family member write his or her own Easter message on the banner. Place the banner in a prominent place inside or outside your home.
- Jesus' Resurrection offers us new life and new hope. Create a work space in your home with markers, stickers and construction paper of bright colors. As a family, make Easter cards to take or send to people in nursing homes.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Sanctuary Lamp: The Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week in loving memory of:

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be April 17th

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Mark, Evangelist, d. c. 74

Mark's Gospel is very likely the first one written (sometime between 60 and 70 while in Rome) and is the shortest of the four. He often goes into much more detail in describing Jesus' ministry than the other evangelists.

Mark apparently was writing for Gentiles who were unfamiliar with Jewish customs. Mark is not mentioned in any of the Gospels, though he may have been referring to himself when he wrote of the young man who attempted to follow Jesus after his arrest in the Garden of Gethsemane (Mark 14:51-52). Modern biblical scholars believe that Mark's Gospel provided Matthew and Luke with a common source for their Gospels.

In the Acts of the Apostles and the letters of Peter and Paul, Mark is mentioned several times. He was the son of Mary at whose house in Jerusalem Peter and the other Apostles stayed. He was a cousin of Barnabas. He accompanied Paul and Barnabas on Paul's first missionary journey, and he was with Paul in Rome during Paul's first imprisonment. Mark was evidently a disciple of Peter who refers to him as "Mark, my son." An early, though uncertain, tradition about Mark is that he was the first bishop of Alexandria.

Saint Mark is the patron saint of Venice. This city claims that his body was brought from Alexandria to Venice, where it now lies in Saint Mark's Cathedral. He is also the patron of notaries. We celebrate the feast day of this Evangelist on April 25.

Mark's message today: Imagine telling the story of Jesus' life to people who have never heard it before. Some of today's evangelists are the teachers of faith formation who tell Jesus' story to children.

*Have you considered offering to teach or help in some way the Faith Formation program in your parish?
Your help would be most appreciated.*

What is the significance of the Paschal Candle?

The Paschal candle has a beautiful significance to Christians, with its rich symbolism and origins in the early centuries of Christianity. Though use of the candle likely began with the practical purpose of providing light to see, even this purpose allowed the candle to symbolize Jesus as the Light overcoming darkness in the Resurrection. This is why the candle is lit at the beginning of the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday and carried in a procession through the church that is still in darkness.

The pillar—which is the candle itself—takes on new meaning when it burns with the blessed fire. It feeds the Church by passing on its light while yet sustaining itself.

There is additional symbolism in the components that make up the candle. The pure wax that makes up the candle represents Jesus' purity. The wick symbolizes Jesus' human nature, while the flame symbolizes his divine nature. The markings on the candle also carry special meaning. The cross represents Christ's great sacrifice; the five grains of incense that are inserted represent his five wounds; and the Greek letters Alpha and Omega represent Jesus as the beginning and end. Often, the candle is also inscribed with the current year, showing each church's continuing participation in the universal celebration.

Once the Easter season is over, the Paschal candle is moved to a place near the baptismal font. There, it can be lit for baptismal and funeral services as a powerful reminder of the Resurrection.
