Our Mission Statement

The love of Jesus Christ gathers us together to welcome and embrace all God's Children.

El amor de Jesus Cristo nos unifica para acoger a todos como hijos de Dios

*May 7, 2017
Fourth Sunday of Easter*

Dear Parishioner,

As a Catholic Christian, we often recite psalm 23 “the Lord is my Shepherd”... a psalm that addresses God as our good shepherd. The liturgy of this weekend leads us to reflect on the meaning of God’s call to each member of the Church to be a shepherd. This is also a Sunday where we pray for vocations to the priesthood and the religious life; those who are called to give their life to serve the Lord and to administer the sacraments. In the scriptures, the image of a shepherd is used to describe the unique relationship of God with his people. In the Gospel for this weekend, the liturgy presents to us Jesus as our good Shepherd. He is the gateway to eternal life, and the selfless, caring shepherd who provides protection to his sheep.

During the time of Jesus in the land of Palestine, the shepherds would bring the sheep down from the hills in the evening to protect them at night when the wolves and mountain lions were hunting their prey. At night, the shepherds would gather their sheep together and lead them into large pens or sheepfolds which had five-foot-high stone walls. The shepherds put the weakest ones along the top of the wall to prevent the mountain lions and wolves from jumping over it. Now, the doorway was about two feet wide, a narrow space in the front wall facing a burning fire of wood outside at night. The shepherd himself would sleep there in the small opening of the stone wall facing the fire with his club and staff. If a mountain lion came, the shepherd would fight it off with his weapons, like his short stocky club or his long-pointed staff. Literally and actually, the shepherd himself was the door.

I am the good Shepherd says the Lord (John 10:11). As a shepherd he stands by us and for us to defend us against any force that can attack us or push us away from his grace and blessing. As a shepherd Jesus is taking responsibility of the sheep and his mission from God the Father to protect, guide, and nurture His flock.

I am the gate; whoever enters through me will be saved (John 10:9). As a gate Jesus is our leader, our way to God. Whoever surrenders their life to him goes through him as a gate for protection and they will be safe and he will care for them. It is through Jesus, “the Door” that we come into the sheepfold where we are protected from the wolves of life. There is safety and security in being a Christian. There is a spiritual, emotional and psychological security, and safety when we live within Jesus and his Church.

Let’s continue to encourage each other to pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life, so that we may have more good shepherds to lead, feed and protect the Catholic community. May the Lord continue to protect us and bless us as we continue to follow him as our Shepherd.

Happy Good Shepherd Sunday

Stewardship

Stewards Not Alone

“And Peter said to them, ‘Repent, and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ...’ Acts 2:38A

The word “repent” means to turn from sin, to change our actions. When it comes to change, do we as Christian Stewards take responsibility for change or do we think that others have to change instead? Change that is Permanent comes from within, we must take control and be disciplined. Remember though that we are not alone, Jesus is there to help lighten the load.

Electronic or “e-Giving” is available to parishioners and friends of Notre Dame de la Mer Parish. It’s easy to set up, and YOU have complete control of how and what you donate to the parish. It’s convenient, consistent, secure and insures privacy. To register, and set up your personal account, go to Notre Dame de la Mer Parish Web Page and click on the link on the front page. Please follow the directions. And if you’re interested, coupon slips can be printed so you have something to place in the collection baskets. If you have questions, or concerns, there is a FAQ section that should help you in your decision. Be sure to visit Parish Pay. Thank you for your generosity.

A Mass of Remembrance & Healing will be celebrated by Monsignor Michael Mannion on Monday, May 15th – 7:00pm at Church of the Resurrection in Marmora for those who have suffered the loss of a child of any age. We encourage and welcome all members of the family and friends affected by the loss of this beloved child to join in this mass of celebration for the precious life that touched ours briefly, yet stays in our hearts forever! (Please bring a picture or special remembrance of your child. Roses will be available for those who have lost their child before birth.) For more information, please call: Betty at 609-425-3553 or email at elizpearce@comcast.net

Parish Information

Sacraments

Pre-Baptismal Classes: As the primary educators of their child, the parents/guardians and godparents have the most important influence on the faith development of children and parishes must provide catechesis for them before their child is baptized. Notre Dame de la Mer Parish offers six Baptism Preparation Classes throughout the year. It is important for the expectant parents/guardians to arrange to attend a session 5 months before the birth and Baptism of the child. Contact the parish offices for more information. The next class is scheduled for Saturday, May 20, 2017, from 9:30 to 11:00 AM.

Funerals: To be arranged with a priest and funeral director.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Marriage: Arrangements should be made one year in advance and prior to making reception plans.

Spanish Baptism Information

Baptism: The Last Sunday of each month, at 7:00 PM at St. Ann Church.

Pre-Jordan Classes: The Thursday prior to the celebration of Baptism at 7:00 PM in St. Ann Chapel.

Bautismos en Espanol: Ultimo Domingo de cada mes a las 7:00 in Santa Ana.

Clases Pre-Bautismales: El jueves anterior a la celebraci3n del bautismo a las 7:00 pm en la iglesia de Santa Ana.

Mark your Calendar!

Our Summer Intensive Religious Education Program will begin on Monday, July 24, 2017 and end on Friday, August 4, 2017. Additional details and registration will be given at a later date.
