Message from Joseph Cray, Wildwood Catholic Academy, Principal

“Ring The Bell School Is Back In Session!”

Hello Everyone! My name is Joe Cray the principal of Wildwood Catholic Academy. I would like to share my excitement as we are about to begin the 2020-2021 school year as the Diocese of Camden’s premier Pre-K through Grade 12 academy. I would like to mention our heartfelt gratitude to Father Wallace and the parishioners of Notre Dame De La Mer, and ALL of the alumni, family, and friends of our school as you ALL have supported our mission and vision to keep Catholic education strong in Cape May County.

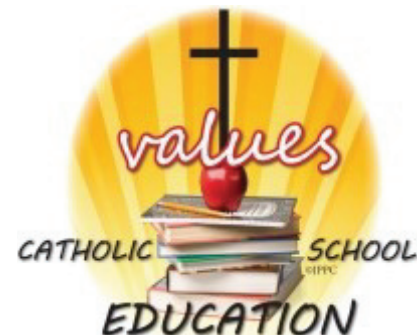

The concept of a traditional school schedule and students learning in person is an idea that has never quite been questioned or challenged as it has this year. We have learned through scholarly studies the benefits of in-person learning. Overwhelmingly, we know that when students are in school they are provided the best educational instruction, their social and emotional needs are met and developed, for our younger students physical activity is monitored and facilitated all in a safe environment for learning. One incredible difference we can offer is accomplishing this guided by prayer and our Catholic morals and values.

The process of preparing for a new school year has never been so ENERGETIC! We have been challenged to modify everything in our school from the look of our classrooms, to the processes students will follow each day, to the structure of the school’s schedule, to improvements in infrastructure, to a multi-layered plan of PPE for the health, safety and well-being of our students and staff. This was all accomplished in a very tight time-frame with the help of our incredible families and staff. We feel the necessity to continually evolve as the landscape of our education has and will also continually change. As the world grows more complex and as obstacles arise we will gracefully move forward with simplicity at the core, striving for academic excellence while making Christ-like decisions in an environment rich in prayer and service.

This year brings a sense of renewal as we are opening full time in-person as Wildwood Catholic Academy. We are also charged with keeping dear to heart the decades of Catholic school tradition in Cape May County. We know this year is going to have incredible outcomes! The resilience of our student population and our supporting community has never been as vigorous as it has since this pandemic began.

As we welcome our students back to school, as we responsibly walk with our families down a path leading to normalcy, and as we rebuild during this pandemic, I ask for your continued prayers and support.

Thank You,
Joe Cray

Stewardship Call

“You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel...” -EZEKIEL 33:7

Many of us are generous with our gifts. However, many of us are not generous in proportion to the gifts we have been given. How often do we give at the minimum level required? Remember, the Lord calls us to Stewardship, where we nurture and develop our gifts. He calls us to be generous with all the gifts He has given us, especially the one that means the most to us.

Electronic Giving: PARISH GIVING is a safe, secure, and easy way to make on-line church related donations and payments. It is easy...and offers you a variety of ways to make consistent or special contributions. Please give it a try by visiting our parish website: www.notredamedelamer.org and click on the PARISH GIVING button.

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

A Prayer to Begin the School Year

Blessed are you, Lord God, Creator of body and mind and heart;
you have sent the Spirit of wisdom and knowledge to guide your people in all their ways.

At the beginning of this new school year
we implore your mercy:

love as we learn from you and each other
how to follow your Son Jesus.

Expand the horizons of our minds,
that we may grow in wisdom,
understanding, and knowledge;
deepen our commitment to seek the truth of your ways;
and enliven our faith to reach out to those in need.

Glory and praise to you, Lord God,

Family Reflection Corner

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- How can you help the members of your family grow in faith? As a family, make a list of ways you can make your home a better reflection of God's love.
- Jesus said that when two or more people come together in his name — he will be there. To help your family experience the power of praying together, pray the Lord's Prayer aloud in unison. Pause for a moment of silence. Invite family members to silently pray for one another. Close by thanking God for the gifts of faith and family.
- Talk with your family about ways to correct someone and still stay friends. In today's Gospel Jesus suggested: 1. Talk with the person yourself. 2. Talk with the person with one or two others. 3. Tell someone in charge.
- Work out a practical guide for resolving disagreements in your family. Write it down and post it where everyone can see it.

Liturgy Corner...learn something new or maybe even become inspired !

Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary - September 8

The Church has celebrated Mary's birth since at least the sixth century. A September birth was chosen because the Eastern Church begins its Church year with September. The September 8 date helped determine the date for the feast of the Immaculate Conception on December 8.

Scripture does not give an account of Mary's birth. However, the apocryphal Protoevangelium of James fills in the gap. This work has no historical value, but it does reflect the development of Christian piety. According to this account, Anna and Joachim are infertile but pray for a child. They receive the promise of a child who will advance God's plan of salvation for the world. Such a story, like many biblical counterparts, stresses the special presence of God in Mary's life from the beginning.

Saint Augustine connects Mary's birth with Jesus' saving work. He tells the earth to rejoice and shine forth in the light of her birth. "She is the flower of the field from whom bloomed the precious lily of the valley. Through her birth the nature inherited from our first parents is changed." The opening prayer at Mass speaks of the birth of Mary's Son as the dawn of our salvation, and asks for an increase of peace.

We can see every human birth as a call for new hope in the world. The love of two human beings has joined with God in his creative work. The loving parents have shown hope in a world filled with tribulation. The new child has the potential to be a channel of God's love and peace to the world.

This is all true in a magnificent way in Mary. If Jesus is the perfect expression of God's love, Mary is the foreshadowing of that love. If Jesus has brought the fullness of salvation, Mary is its dawning.
