NOTRE DAME DE LA MER PARISH

For Generations to Come Refurbishment & Revitalize Campaign

Thank you for being a part of Notre Dame de la Mer Catholic Community and for supporting the work of the Church with your time, talent, and treasure. Your presence and your contributions are a true blessing.

We are all blessed to have such beautiful churches and after many wonderful years of worship, prayer, and the sacraments, are now asking for help to address three immediate concerns (identified below). The years have taken a toll on many parts of both our churches, and this campaign is asking for assistance with the most urgent needs to enable Notre Dame de la Mer to continue to provide a comfortable and beautiful environment.

No vision this big comes without a price, but we believe that by praying and working together, we can build something great, not for our glory, but for God's. If we are to build what is needed to support our growing faith family and do the work of our Church for years to come, we will need everyone in our community to make an additional, significant, financial sacrifice, just as those who have gone before us.

Consider the story of the widow's mite from Luke 21:1-4. In this parable, Jesus speaks of rich people contributing their gifts to the offertory, followed by a poor widow who gave two small coins. Jesus viewed her contribution as a sacrificial gift because she truly felt the impact in her daily life.

Thank you for your support, your prayers, and for being part of this project and community. It is a blessing to walk beside you.

In the Peace of Christ,
Fr. Cadmus Mazzarella, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

As we celebrate Flag Day weekend and gather in prayer at Notre Dame de la Mer Parish, I would like to take a moment to express my sincere gratitude for the unwavering support that you provide to Wildwood Catholic Academy.

Whether you are a year-round parishioner, a summer resident, or a visitor enjoying time in the Wildwoods, your generosity, prayers, and love for Catholic education make a tremendous difference in the lives of our students. Because of your support, our school continues to grow, thrive, and fulfill its mission of forming young people in faith, knowledge, and service.

As we look ahead to the 2026-2027 school year, we are excited to welcome many new families into the Wildwood Catholic Academy community. Each new student who walks through our doors becomes part of something special—a school family rooted in faith and committed to academic excellence, character development, and service to others, a long-standing tradition of Catholic education that hasn't changed.

One of the greatest strengths of our school is that everyone plays an important role. Parents, grandparents, parishioners, alumni, faculty, staff, Father Mazz and his team and supporters all contribute to the formation of outstanding citizens and faithful young men and women. The education of a child is never accomplished by one person alone; it takes an entire community working together to nurture minds, strengthen character, and inspire hearts.

As you read this message during Flag Day weekend, we are also reminded of the importance of honoring our nation, our flag, and the brave men and women who have served and sacrificed to protect our freedoms. Throughout the school year, Wildwood Catholic Academy proudly teaches respect for our country and gratitude for our veterans. We are blessed to live in a nation where we can freely practice our faith, pursue our dreams, and gather as a community of believers.

As summer begins, I pray that you and your families enjoy all that makes our shore community so special—the beauty of God's creation along our beaches, the excitement of the boardwalk, the laughter shared around family dinner tables, and the countless opportunities to create lasting memories with loved ones. Most importantly, I hope that amid the busy days of summer, you find time to deepen your relationship with Christ and remain connected to your faith.

On behalf of everyone at Wildwood Catholic Academy, thank you for believing in our mission and for helping us continue to be a school that is truly Small but Mighty.

May God bless you, your families, and all who visit our beautiful shore community this summer.

Sincerely,

Joe Cray
Principal
Wildwood Catholic Academy

Reflections on the Readings

READING I: Exodus 19:2-6a - God reminds Moses how He delivered the Israelites and established a special covenant.

◆ God entrusts us with His light so we may minister to others constantly reminding us of our royal priesthood bestowed at Baptism.

READING II: Romans 5:6-11 — God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.

◆ This reading reminds us that we do not need to earn God's love; it is given freely. God pours out his grace before we even repent.

GOSPEL: Matthew 9:36-10:8 — Jesus sees the crowds as "troubled & abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd."

◆ This passage reminds us that we are challenged to bring healing love to the lost, the sick, and the marginalized in our own communities.

All of these readings remind us that we are chosen to be God's hands & feet, serving a world in need without counting the cost.

The heart of Christ has always been a source of consolation for the Church. Saint Francis de Sales teaches that all our names are written on the heart of God: "Surely it is a source of profound consolation to know that we are loved so deeply by our Lord, who constantly carries us in his heart" (Sermon for the Second Sunday of Lent, February 20, 1622). Pope Francis tells us that when we contemplate the heart of Christ and His self-surrender even to death, we are consoled in Christ's love for us: "The grief that we feel in our hearts gives way to complete trust and, in the end, what endures is gratitude, tenderness, peace; what endures is Christ's love reigning in our lives" (Dilexit Nos).

Saint of the Week

Barnabas, Apostle and Martyr, First Century

One of three persons formally recognized as Apostles who were not directly chosen by Christ among the original twelve, Barnabas was, nevertheless, extremely active in apostolic work.

St. Luke, who in the Acts of the Apostles tells us of the communal life of the early Christian community in Jerusalem, singles out Barnabas' sale of his estate and his laying the money from this sale at the feet of the apostles as an example of Christian calling. In speaking of this incident, Luke interprets Barnabas' name as meaning "son of encouragement" (Lk 4:36-37). It is in Luke's writings where we first see the reference to Barnabas as an Apostle.

We know from other references in the Acts that Barnabas had a strong influence on the other Apostles and was active in the early councils and missionary activity of the Church. When St. Paul came to Jerusalem following his conversion, the apostles and the faithful were suspicious of his change of heart. It was Barnabas who took him in and vouched for him.

Later, Barnabas, "a good man, filled with the Holy Spirit and faith," was chosen by the apostles to preach the Good News at Antioch. Barnabas brought St. Paul with him to assist in this mission which lasted a year. Barnabas and Paul then traveled together on Paul's first missionary journey which carried them to Salamis in Cyprus and other Mediterranean ports. In Paphos, Barnabas and Paul converted the Roman proconsul. At Iconium, they narrowly escaped being stoned to death. Overall, the mission was a stunning success, gaining many converts to the Church.

A disagreement between Paul and Barnabas later ended their association and Paul left on his second missionary journey without Barnabas. This is the last mention of Barnabas in the Acts. One brief further mention of Barnabas occurs in St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians.

Tradition tells us that St. Barnabas died around the year A.D. 60, having been stoned to death at Salamis. Other traditions say that he preached in Alexandria and Rome and that he was the first bishop of Milan.

We celebrate this saint's life with a memorial on June 11.
