Letter From Father Wallace

Dear Parishioner,

We are happy to join in the celebration this weekend for the Ancient Order of Hibernians 25th Annual Irish Fall Festival. Our 10:30 Mass at St. Ann Church will feature a grand processional entrance including the AOH Protectors of the Faith Guards, the Cape May County Emerald Society Honor Guard and a liturgical bag pipe soloist. This year's Grand Marshal will be our own Wildwood Catholic High School graduate and USA 2016 Triathlon Olympian, Joe Maloy. This liturgy each year celebrates the many contributions made by the Irish descendants here in the United States religiously, politically, socially and culturally.

Immigrants from Ireland and their progeny have left an indelible mark on American culture and have contributed to every aspect of progress for our great nation. They have served in positions of leadership in the Church and in the political arena from the founding of our nation. Their strong and faithful adherence to the Faith has been passed on from one generation to the next. They have enhanced all the arts, academia, journalism, entertainment, dance and sports. They have championed the rights of workers, women, minorities and the unborn.

We are blessed to have a number of Irish American members of our parish family of Notre Dame de la Mer. The Ancient Order of Hibernians, James J. Reilly Division #1 has supported our parish and two schools in numerous ways. Most especially with their generous scholarship help in order to offer a wonderful Catholic education to those in need. Our parish family is most grateful for all their help and support in so many ways. The AOH and LAOH are wonderful promoters and protectors of the Faith and Irish heritage.

I hope to see you all at the wonderful parade following the Mass to cheer on local Olympian, Joe Maloy, and to celebrate Irish heritage.

Fr. Wallace

Stewardship

Stewards Bridge Chasm

"My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted her, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established... Luke 16:25-26A

When God created the world He declared that it was good and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today's Gospel we see that with our own Stewardship we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life.

DID YOU KNOW - the House of Charity is a donor choice for many employee giving campaigns?

Many businesses will begin their Employee Giving Campaigns this month and continue to solicit donations through the fall months. Employee Giving/United Way campaigns give us an opportunity to direct our donations to the charities that best represent our beliefs, interests and social concerns. Ask your employer for a pledge card and be sure to: In the Donor Choice Section, designate the "HOUSE of Charity" Ask to be acknowledged! This ensures our parish will receive credit toward our House of Charity goal. If the agency requests a code for your donor choice...these codes may be found on the House of Charity website under "Employee Giving Campaign" and in the Catholic Star Herald. Your donation to our House of Charity helps to build, support and maintain many programs, ministries and services throughout our parishes and communities. These programs save lives and build futures. Thank you so much for your past, present and future support of our House of Charity fundraising campaign. If you have any questions, please contact: Sheila McGirl, House of Charity (856) 583-6128

Parish Information

Sacraments

Pre-Baptismal Classes: As the primary educators of their child, the parents/guardians and godparents have the most important influence on the faith development of children and parishes must provide catechesis for them before their child is baptized. Notre Dame de la Mer Parish offers six Baptism Preparation Classes throughout the year. It is important for the expectant parents/guardians to arrange to attend a session 5 months before the birth and Baptism of the child. Contact the parish offices for more information. The next class is scheduled for Saturday, November 6, 2016, from 9:30 to 11:00 AM.

Funerals: To be arranged with a priest and funeral director.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Marriage: Arrangements should be made one year in advance and prior to making reception plans.
